And my goal is...

Welcome to the world, it's the big leagues now. I'm not a child anymore. I've graduated now, what am I going to do? It's off to college for me. Going to a good college has been one of my goals since I was a little girl. Going to a good college is a goal that will take awhile, but I plan on accomplishing it.

If I'm going to achieve my dream I have to start now, by getting good grades in school. If I start by getting good grades now, it will be easier to get them when it counts. College isn't easy, but if I push myself to do things that aren't in my comfort zone and things that are hard for me. I can and will achieve it. In High School I won't take classes just because they are an easy way to get an A. I'm going to take the classes that will help prepare me for college. The classes in college aren't easy and it will be hard, but if I don't take the easy way out I will be prepared for whatever comes my way.

Going to a good college is very important to me because, by going to a good college I can get a job I love doing. The people who don't go to college have to get whatever job is available, but the people who go to college can usually get a job they love. By going to a good college you can get a job that you can't get by just graduating High School. You could be a doctor, a lawyer, a judge, or a nurse. You could be anything you want to be.

So going to a good college is very important to me. That is why going to a good college is my goal and dream. I know I have to start now to accomplish it, but it will be worth it in the long run. Will it be easy, no it won't, but it is my goal and I will achieve it.
